

Go to your iPhone Settings by clicking on the  icon

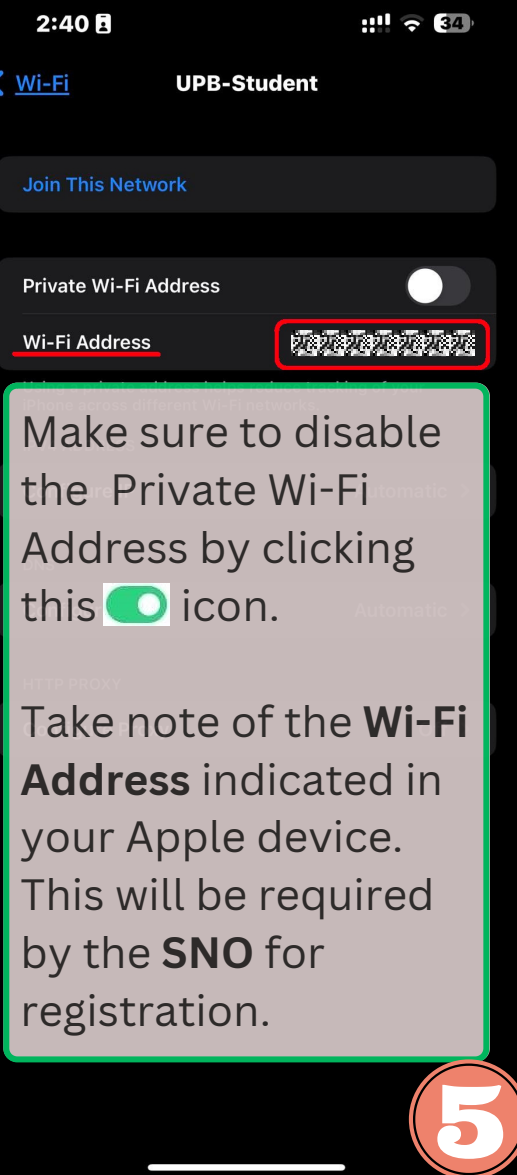

Open the Wi-Fi settings by clicking on the  icon

click on the  icon next to the UPB-Student Wi-Fi

In some devices, Private Wi-Fi Address is enabled by default.

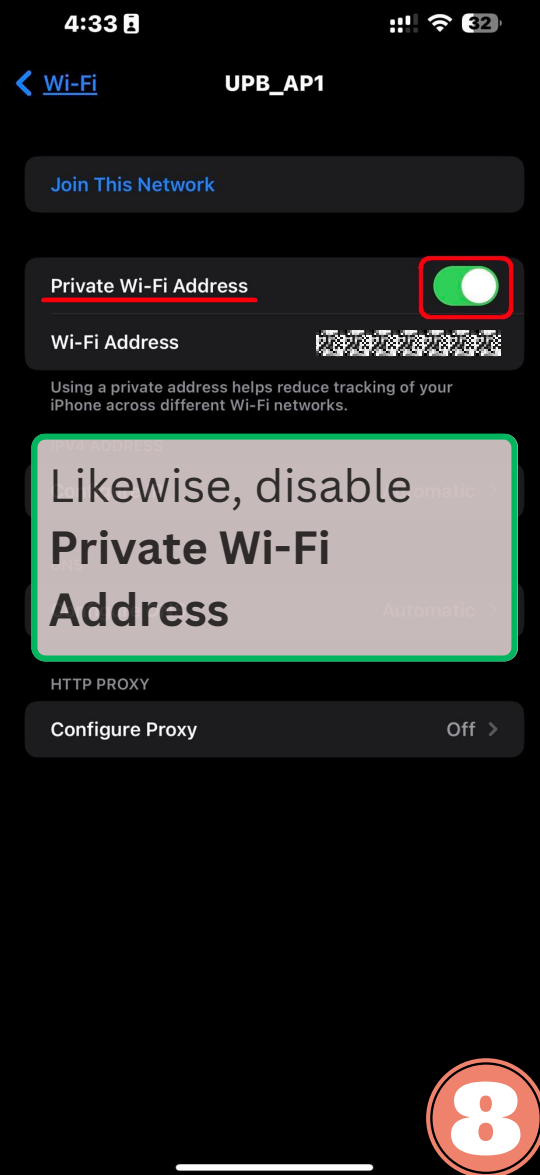

Make sure to disable the Private Wi-Fi Address by clicking this  icon.
Take note of the Wi-Fi Address indicated in your Apple device. This will be required by the SNO for registration.

Click on the Join This Network link to access the UPB-Student Wi-Fi.
No password is required

Navigate back to your Wi-Fi settings and this time click on the  for UPB_AP1 Wi-Fi

Likewise, disable Private Wi-Fi Address

Click on the Join This Network link to access the UPB_AP1.

Enter 3c925f38de when prompted for a password

Go to your Android device Settings

Click on the i icon next to the UPB-Student Wi-Fi.

Click on the Wi-Fi settings to display the available Wi-Fi networks

Click on the Privacy Settings

Enable Device MAC address by ticking the button next to it

Confirm the privacy configuration by clicking on the Switch anyway option

Click on the Join This Network link to access the UPB-Student Wi-Fi

Next, navigate to your android device's About phone settings

Then click on the Status (for others it's Detailed Specs)

Take note of your Device Wi-Fi MAC Address. This will be required by SNO for registration

Navigate back to your Wi-Fi settings and this time click on the i for UPB-AP1 Wi-Fi

Make sure that the Device MAC address is enabled.

Then proceed to Join This Network and enter the password 3c925f38de

OR

In some devices, when you connect to the Wi-Fi Network, it already shows the Privacy Settings or you have to click the Advance Settings.

Make sure to change the Privacy Settings to Use device MAC then enter the password 3c925f38de before joining the network.

1 2

OR

